Subject: Mr Snelling

Hello Clive, I was tasked by Sgt Gould to hand deliver a letter to Mr Snelling at Cloudside. Mr Snelling came out to meet us on the driveway to his property and upon handing him the letter he proceeded to tear it up, commenting that he has "already paid his fine" and saying that "this was the third one" (presumably referring to the letter). BWV was activated and can be viewed via my collar 26726 or my oppo for the evening 28049.

Regards
Lee
