

Modern Gov – Consultation Implications Form

Do any of the following apply to this issue/report?		YES	NO	N/A
Consultation has already been completed.			X
The Council is considering	A new plan, service or policy	X
	Changing a current plan, service or policy.
	Implementation of a current plan, service or policy.
Evidence	The Council needs evidence about the impact of changing external factors (demographic, economic, public policy) on community needs, perceptions and priorities.	X
	The Council has sufficient evidence about community needs, perceptions and priorities on this issue/ policy/ plan/service. (including those of people with protected characteristics)		X
	There is an indication that the public or sections of the community are requesting changes to be made to Council plans, services or policies. (Complaints, petitions, Councillors ward information, MPs etc)	X
Changes proposed are prescribed by statute (the Council has a duty to implement change).	The Council has no or very little choice about implementation.		X
	The Council has some/significant choice about implementation.	X
	Are there external agencies who could be impacted significantly?	X
	Are there internal stakeholders (services) who could be impacted?		X
There is a statutory duty to consult on this issue/plan/policy/service.		X
And the type of consultation is prescribed.		X
Council policy is:	to undertake consultation on this issue.	X
	not to undertake consultation on this issue
It has been determined that a full equality impact assessment is required.		X

What is the scale and impact changes being considered could have?
(mark with an X)	Little change		Significant changes
Individuals/groups with protected characteristics	X
Few individuals

	Most Households

Is consultation required? If no please summarise the reason below:
Public consultation will be undertaken with: residents and local businesses in these areas (leaflet drop), relevant Parish Councils and Ward Councillors, Staffordshire County Council and other relevant public sector organisations/ amenity groups, key Council Officers

If yes please refer to the Council's consultation toolkit available on the intranet.