Can't wait for Edwards bar hadfield to open somewhere for families to go and enjoy food and a drink together in a friendly environment. Not only some here to drink but somewhere to enjoy a meal either when getting when off the train or as an organised get together. Also commuters will benefit from fresh food and drinks when having an early morning start and waiting for the train. We can't wait to visit and hopefully find a new local

I would just like to write to say how excited I am that Edwards Bar (Article/239) is opening again, this will be good not just for the people of Hadfield, but all the visitors that use the train to go into the Longdendale Trail, it will also be nice to go somewhere local to have a meal and bring employment to the area. Looking forward to seeing it open.
